

A how-to for prayer walks (sits, bumbles, etc...)

A prayer walk is as simple as it sounds. It's going out and about in the community to pray. That can be speaking to God as you walk out loud. It may be praying in your head as you walk. It may be walking to a series of locations then standing (or sitting) in a group to pray together for those places. You can walk alone, with a prayer partner, or with a group.

It's very simple and very flexible, so why not give it a go?

For the CBC week of prayer, have the list of prayer points to hand (these will be sent with the notices for 5th September). I like to have a Bible with me, too. You may decide on a few topics to pray for before you go or pray for the things that come to mind as you walk.

Don't worry about finding the perfect words to say. God knows your heart, and he'll fill in the gaps. Just speak to God. He loves to hear from you, and he loves to bless his people by answering our prayers according to his good and perfect wisdom.

I'd love to hear about your prayer walk and encourage one another. Perhaps something prompted you to pray in a specific way. Perhaps God surprised you, taught you, reminded you of a part of His word or gave you insight into his plans for CBC as you walked and prayed.
