

It's Bible Sunday on 24 October and your free Bible Sunday resources are ready. There are sermon notes and video on Isaiah 55, a Bible mission video, prayers, inspiring stories to share and activities for children and youth. We would love you to join us as we celebrate the Bible together.

Most of our Christmas resources are now available in plenty of time to prepare for Christmas. There are children's booklets for ages 1–5 and 6–11, videos, a nativity script, stickers and cards. And do look out for our popular Family Advent Box, available to order from 20 September.

This week it is the RHS Chelsea Flower show at which we are exhibiting a Psalm 23 Garden. We hope that Sarah Eberle's beautiful garden offers a fresh experience of this much loved Psalm which has been so relevant to us during the pandemic. Hot off the press, we are delighted to announce that the garden has just been awarded a Gold Medal. If you feel inspired to create your own Psalm 23 garden or hold a community banquet you will find resources to help you do this on our Get Active page.

Our friends at Westminster Theological College warmly invite you to an evening to celebrate the past 15 years of WTC. Dr Stephen Holmes, Head of Divinity at University of St Andrews, will be giving a public lecture on Biblicist Communities and Academic Theology: Towards Mutual Understanding. This takes place on Friday 24 September, 5.30 pm to 8.00 pm at St James the Less, Pimlico. Book your place here.
